

Takes the heat. Stays true to the flavor.

While the healthy benefits of coconut oil are now becoming more widely known, savvy chefs have long been aware of its incredible cooking benefits. Not only does Vegalene Coconut Oil Food Release Spray provide dependable oil stability at temperatures up to 380 degrees, but our unique formula delivers benefits well beyond other release sprays.

Vegalene Coconut Oil helps seal in moisture on proteins while providing an even browning that makes dishes look as great as they taste. It is specifically formulated so that it won't obscure the natural flavors of foods. Vegalene Coconut Oil won't gum up your pans or turn brown, saving precious time in clean up.

You've come to rely on the exceptional performance, quality, and value of Vegalene brand release sprays. Vegalene Coconut Oil Release Spray will meet those expectations.

Vegalene Coconut Oil gives you:

- Higher Yield. Covers more pans per can than other sprays*
- Increased productivity with a faster, easier cleanup
- Better overall coverage for pans and utensils
- No gummy residue build up

Ingredients: Coconut Oil, Soy Lecithin, Natural Flavor, Beta Carotene and Propellant.
